The Harare Agricultural Show offered another platform to connect with a diverse audience, including farmers, businesses, and the general public. We showcased our innovative solutions and services, emphasizing our dedication to empowering communities through reliable and affordable internet access. We are excited about the positive feedback and connections we established at both events. As we continue to expand our reach and enhance our services, we remain committed to being a driving force in the digital revolution of Southern Africa.

AFRICOM sponsored the 21st International Images Film Festival (IIFF) of 2024, under the theme: "Women of the future".

Africom proudly supported the 21st International Images Film Festival (IIFF) in 2024, a prestigious event showcasing the power of cinema to inspire and challenge. Under the theme "Women of the Future," the festival highlighted the achievements and aspirations of women filmmakers and characters from around the globe. Through its sponsorship, Africom demonstrated its commitment to promoting diversity, equality, and the arts. The festival featured a diverse range of films that explored themes such as female empowerment, gender equality, and social justice.

EXPLORE ZIMBABWE'S PAST: NEW VIRTUAL TOURS LAUNCHED

Africom has established an interactive board at Africa Unity Square, a new initiative designed to enhance Harare's tourism appeal.

By partnering with the city, Africom aims to offer immersive virtual tours that explore the rich historical tapestry of Harare and other Zimbabwean destinations. These tours will delve into the city's pre-colonial, colonial, and post-colonial eras, providing locals, students, and international visitors with a unique opportunity to experience Zimbabwe's past firsthand. This initiative is crucial for shaping and controlling the narrative about Zimbabwe, both domestically and internationally, ensuring that the nation's history is accurately and authentically represented.
